Excuse me, will you come and take a picture with us as a souvenir?

Look at the camera.

Lady

A film by Fardin Ansari

Look at this.

It's my friend.

This is...

At that time there was no food for me in the forest.

Then Macbeth brought me here.

You mean everything is so good here that you prefer this place to the forest?

It's clear that everything is good here.

What made you think that I was living a happy life in the forest?

You yourself...

Look, this is you.

Do you prefer the South Pole to here?

Any polar bear would like to be in your place.

A warm cozy place.

Who provided it for you?

Macbeth.

Our king, Macbeth.

Do you think everyone agrees with you?

Yes.

Everybody does.

Many of them are dead now.

They're not here to show it;

the scorpion, the woodpecker, the giraffe.

If they were here, they'd have the same opinion.

Even the donkey?! Would he share the same idea with you, too?

Yes, even the donkey.

So why did they kill him?

He wasn't killed. He died.

But his body was covered in blood.

I don't get it.

Does it mean that he was killed just because his body was covered in blood?

- Yes.

It means someone killed him.

You know it very well, but you're lying to me.

- I'm not lying to you, darling.

- Yes, you are, because you're liar.

- I'm not a liar.

- Yes, you are!

- I am not.

- Yes, you're a liar!

I'm not a liar! Try to understand!

The donkey was a close friend of us.

I loved him as much as you did.

But he died on his own. He wasn't killed.

If you see blood on his shroud, maybe that's because he hit his head against something.

And I warn you not to say this to someone else.

Understood?

Answer me. Did you understand what I just said?

Yes, I did.

Lady is supposed to come today.

You shouldn't be upset.

We're preparing to welcome and receive Lady after all.

So you are to be happy.

Now tell me what you're going to tell Lady once she's here.

I'm such a happy polar bear and everything is just perfect here.

Good girl! Now finish off your work and go get ready.

After Macbeth became king, his wife,

Lady Macbeth, suddenly disappeared.

Everyone thought that she had committed suicide,

but years later, a carrier pigeon brought a letter through which we realized that she was alive.

In the letter, Lady had written that one day she'd come back and would meet Macbeth again.

Many have been looking forward to her return and now the day has come.

I think today is a very special day.

Today, I want to serve Lady some coffee.

Well, as a polar bear I could never fall in love with a snake neither in in the forest nor in the South Pole

whereas here I have the freedom to be in love.

I owe it all to the great king, Macbeth.

I'm such a happy polar bear and ...everything is just perfect here.

All right. We're now ready to welcome our dear Lady.

- Hello.

- Hello.

I am Lady Macbeth.

I've come to see Macbeth.

Welcome back, dear Lady!

Please come inside and have a coffee while I inform His Excellency Macbeth of your arrival.

Thank you.

We are really happy to see you again after so many years.

Would you like me to tell your fortune

by reading your cup of coffee?

I'm very good at it indeed.

Go ahead.

You've made a tremendous change in your life,

but now you only regret it.

At this moment you want to make another change which gives you peace of mind.

Nevertheless, it will result in an unfavorable outcome.

I see a shadow.

A big dark shadow.

It's something like a spell or magic.

You make a very big effort to defeat it,

but it's beyond your power.

You can enter His Excellency Macbeth's room now.

I feel guilty.

I shouldn't have provoked you into committing a crime.

There are so many things we should have never done.

I left you and went away because I was going through hell, the hell I myself set fire to.

I have a guilty conscience.

I'm regretful.

I just came to tell you to stop it.

Please put an end to it all.

Yes, we betrayed everyone...

... but you must stop committing crimes.

Stop it.

That's all.
