

as if in a dream

Reading Time Herman Asselberghs

video, color, silent, BE, 2024, 8'17"

In Reading Time, Asselberghs creates a portrait of the attentive viewer on site, so to speak. 'Without' images and entirely text-based, the projection initiates a silent dialogue with the viewer. The film and you. Is it a manifesto, a manual or a mantra? Your portrait, your decision.
